ucts declined to 15, a low record. Steel preferred became heavy and lost %. Sugar rose %.

The concessions which were generally made in prices at the opening of the market were soon followed by further weakness, resulting from a moderate increase in selling pressure. The excuse for the depression was the fear of an dverse decision in the Northern Securities case, the common impression in the street being that the court will hand down its opinion on Monday.

In the railroad list declines extended from ½ to ¼ per cent in such stocks as St. Paul, Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, Reading, Atchison, Illinois Central, Louisville and Nashville, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, and Canadian Pacific. Chicago and Northwestern opened with an exceptional decline of 21/4 per cent.

Brokers generally do not look for much improvement in the business of the exchange for some time. As one of them expressed it this morning, the summer is going to be the dullest that has been seen for a long time, and little, if any, improvement is to be hoped for until after the Presidential election. This broker entertained the same opinion concerning the New York stock market, the character of which, in his opinion, would be reflected upon the local market.
